

GreenNews

Application for message downloading from the RSS sources, newspapers and internet websites. The application displays the homepage from the menu divided into several popular topics. It connects with the Internet after launching in order to update the channels.

GreenTaxi

System for quick taxi ordering. Its asset is the accumulation of many corporations and private haulers within one application. It enables the user taxi ordering from the map's level or from available haulers.

GreenTrader

GreenTrader is an application for the GreenEnergy platform users. It is used by the agents reporting potential projects for implementation and installers and other people participating in particular project conduction stages.

Green Point

Application for intelligent house management. It allows remote and local control of household appliances and audio/video devices, alert systems, video monitoring, lighting and anti-theft security (shutters) and many more.

Green Control

Green Control is a complex mobile and web application package for monitoring the parcel's state, cargo tracking, vehicle monitoring and warehouse managing.

Green Cars

Application for car state management. It communicates with the combustion engine car via dedicated OBD2 device, and via CAN module in case of electric cars. It facilitates error report checking.

Green Point

Green Point is an application which enables the user to find and book charging points for electric cars and find other automotive services. It enables the user to change the desired search radius.

Green Shop

Application enabling internet store management along with the web application.

Green Metering

It allows the users for monitoring electric, gas and water meters readings via application in all the immovable properties of the user. It allows for observing the utilities consumption statistics.